CHIMPS DON'T WEAR GLASSES

CHIMPS DON'T WEAR GLASSES

Chimps don't wear glasses

And zebras don't cook

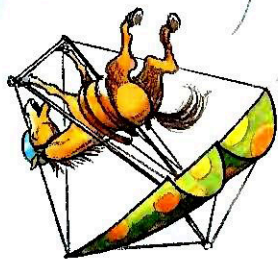

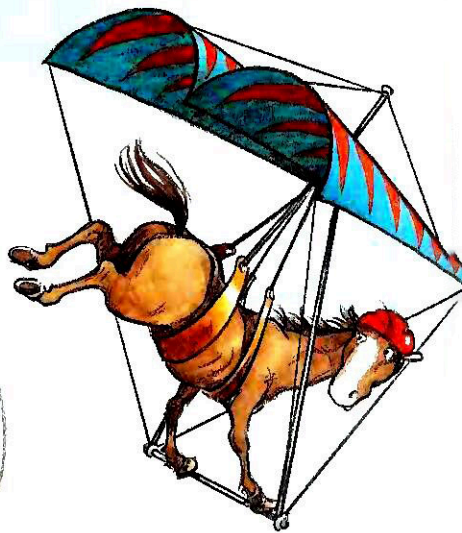

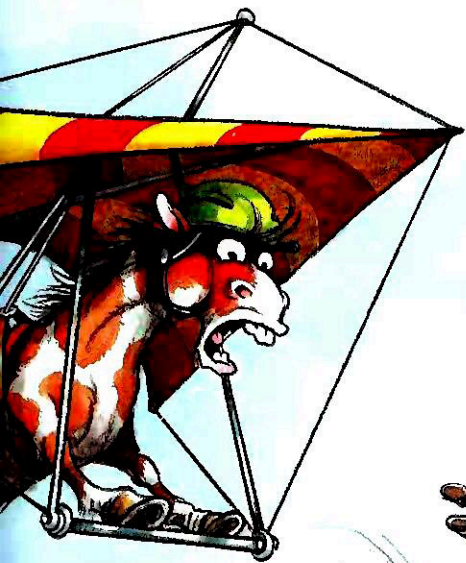

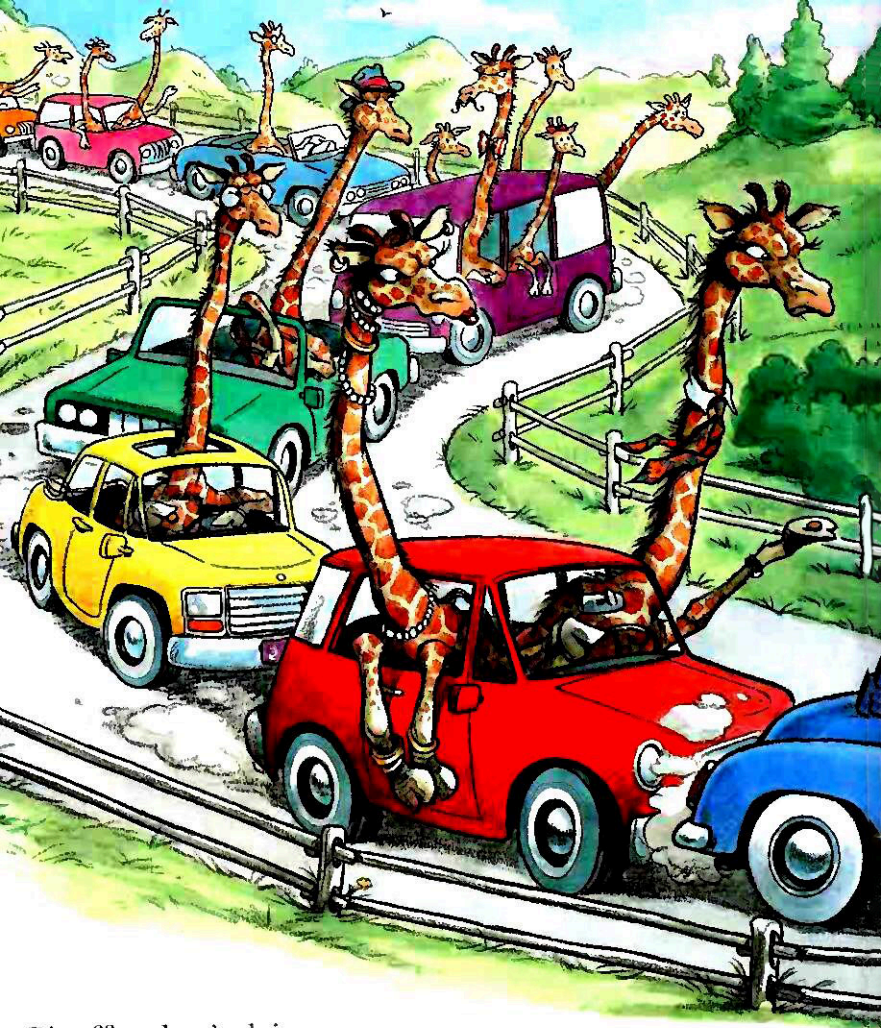

And you won't see a kangaroo reading a book.

Horses don't hang glide,

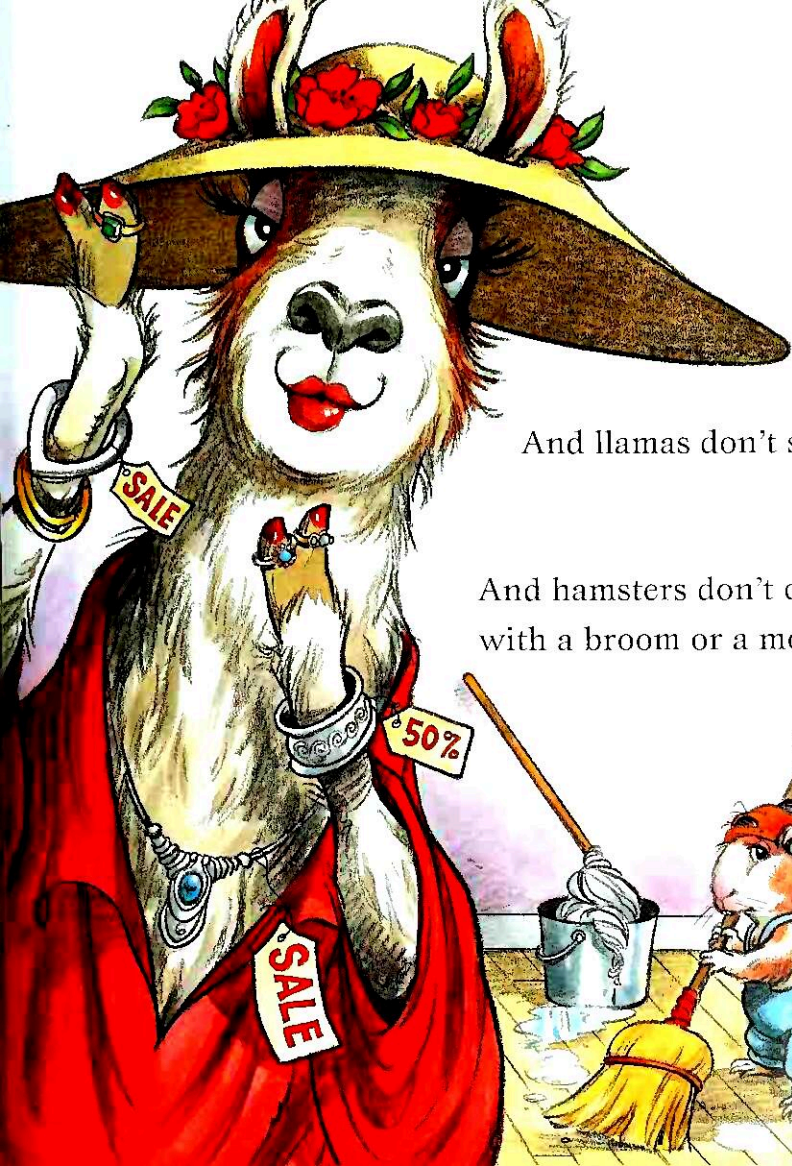

Giraffes don't drive cars
And you won't see a piglet saving pennies in jars.

TOLL

Mice don't join Boy Scouts

And llamas don't shop

And hamsters don't clean
with a broom or a mop.

Reindeer don't square dance

And seals don't fly kites

And weasels don't travel to see all the sights.

Pandas don't pole vault

And camels don't sing

And you won't find a chipmunk who'll ever be king.

Tigers don't ice-skate
And wolves don't use mugs

And you won't see a puppet show put on by pugs.

Now just close your eyes and draw with your mind.
You might be surprised at what you will find...

Like yaks in tuxedos

And hippos on boats

And otters who ride in parades full of floats.

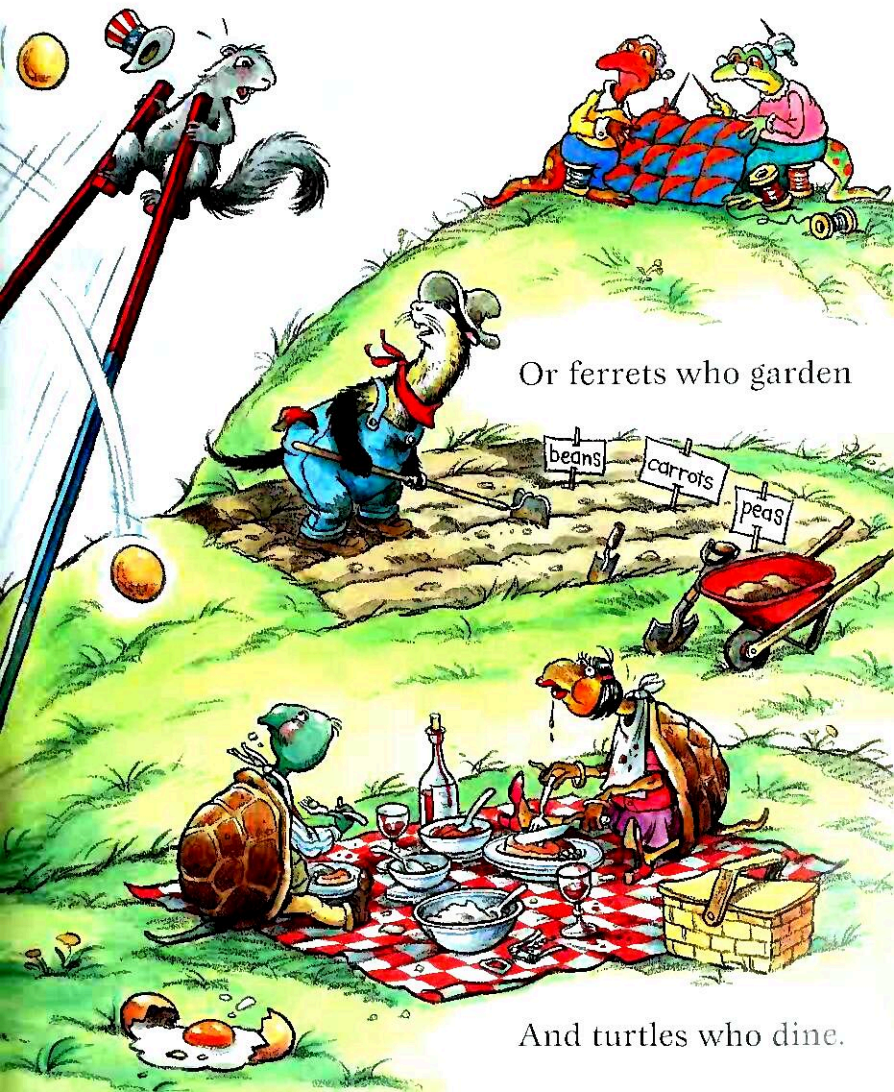

Or lions who juggle

And squirrels on stilts

And lizards who know how to sew handmade quilts.

Or ferrets who garden

And turtles who dine.

But tell me what you
see. It's your dream—not mine!
